Feast of Tabernacles

2013 U.S. and Caribbean Housing Information
The Feast of Tabernacles is just around the corner. Part of a successful Feast is procuring the right housing for your needs. Church brethren spend a lot of time in their accommodations during the time they are at the Feast, not only to sleep, but to entertain, fellowship and spend time with the family!

As such, the Feast coordinators take a significant amount of time in considering and selecting the properties that are listed in this housing guide. In doing so, we strive to consider quality, price and variety of housing types to help make your stay enjoyable.

Each year we evaluate the quality and value of the housing we offered the previous Feast by reviewing the housing surveys for that site. We then make any needed adjustments to the housing listed in order to ensure the best possible facilities for Church members. You may find a few new housing properties listed this year, and you may find some properties of the past no longer being used.

As you prepare to select and reserve housing for 2013, we recommend that you first review the available housing at the site you will be attending. We have listed websites for most of the housing establishments so you can preview the facility before making your reservations and avoid unpleasant surprises.

As you make your housing arrangements, please remember these important reminders:

1. In general, please do not attempt to make reservations prior to the opening day and time for reservations—which is May 13 at 10 a.m. in the time zone of the site you are attending. The establishments have been asked to not accept reservations prior to the agreed-upon time.

2. Those with disabilities, health problems or other special needs that require specific types of facilities may make early housing reservations beginning May 5. (Check with your local Feast adviser for guidelines.) Several sites require a password in order to make early reservations.

3. When making your reservations, identify yourself as a member of the “Church of God, a Worldwide Association, Feast of Tabernacles.” Be sure to give your arrival and departure dates; be prepared to give a deposit; and be sure to ask for a confirmation number.

4. Please take notice of the maximum number of occupants allowed... in a room and do not exceed that number. Reserving a room for four people and then putting six to seven people in the room is not allowed, as it causes extra work for the housekeeping staff and violates the agreements we have made.

5. Make only one housing reservation at one Feast site. Making duplicate reservations blocks housing from others looking for housing. If your plans to attend that site change, be sure to cancel your housing reservations as soon as possible to free up housing.

Frequently asked questions

Q. What if I can’t find housing that fills my needs?

A. There may be cases—such as when traveling with pets or needing four or more bedrooms to accommodate a very large family—when what’s available on the Festival housing site will not fit your needs. We realize that there may be situations where a person needs to go elsewhere to find housing.

Q. What if I can find cheaper housing elsewhere—such as online?

A. It may be possible to find cheaper housing online at times. For instance, an individual wanting to rent out his privately owned condo may offer it for less than the condos we list in the brochure. However, members should realize that the quality and cleanliness of these properties may or may not be as good as what we list. In some cases, booking privately can require a weekend to weekend stay, which may cost more in the long run. There are a few hotels that offer “come-on” rates that are cheaper, but what you get may be an inferior or smaller room. We encourage you to use housing that is listed in the housing brochure for several reasons.

Q. What are the benefits to using housing from the housing guide?

A. First, the quality and price are assured. Each year we check out and examine some rooms at each establishment we use to ensure quality, cleanliness and price.

As well, many of our meeting facilities require us to book a certain number of rooms in order to use the meeting hall or to get a reasonable rate for the meeting facility. Members patronizing these hotels or housing facilities get a good price, help us fulfill our commitment and, in some cases, help the Church to incur a lower cost for the meeting facility. In fact, we have come close to losing some sites because not enough people stayed in the host establishment. Hotels and resorts make most of their money on services and amenities rather than the rent of meeting space. If we utilize their meeting space but not their rooms, their costs increase and/or they do not welcome us back!

On top of that, utilizing and reserving a property from the housing list generally ensures that at the place you’ll stay there will be other Church brethren with whom you can get acquainted and spend time.

And finally, securing your accommodations from the COGWA Feast housing list means the Church can assist you in resolving any potential difficulties you run into with your housing.

Q. Why aren’t there more campgrounds listed in the brochure? We like to camp at the Feast.

A. While very few members camp anymore during the Feast, those who do are acquainted with such and are free to choose an appropriate campground. The Church does not generally list them because of the limited requests and because we don’t use enough to negotiate a discounted rate for members. If there are no campgrounds listed for the site you will attend, feel free to select any campground in the area.

Thanks you very much for your cooperation in making this the “best Feast ever!”

BARBADOS / Barbados is the most easterly of the Caribbean islands. The island is fringed by coral reefs; and the west and south coasts are generously gifted with white sandy beaches, while the ruggedly beautiful northeastern coast presents a rocky shoreline and a vigorous, pounding surf, bordered by majestic cliffs.

The south coast is most alluring, with sun-drenched sands and turquoise waters luring one to bathe and relax comfortably. This year, the Feast will be held at Divi Southwinds Beach Resort, which is located in St. Lawrence Gap, Christ Church, on the south coast. Services will be held in the conference room of the hotel.

Those attending the Feast in Barbados will need to make their own hotel reservations. You might consider combining your airfare with your hotel using a travel agency such as Orbitz or Travelocity.

You can check online for hotels in St. Lawrence Gap, Barbados; but for your convenience, several hotels are listed below. All of these hotels are within a kilometer of Divi Southwinds, the hotel where services will be held. The rates below are EP (European plan—food or drink is not included in the cost).

For further information or help and to register to attend, contact Arnold Hampton at arnold.hampton@cogwa.org.

Nestled in the foothills of Northern California’s majestic Sierra Nevada Mountains, the city of Rocklin offers us a beautiful venue for our celebration of the 2013 Feast of Tabernacles. Located about 30 minutes from Sacramento, Rocklin puts you within easy driving range of Lake Tahoe, San Francisco or the Napa Valley Wine Country (all less than two hours away).

Nearby attractions include Old Sacramento with its highly rated train museum and the Delta King riverboat; the capitol building; the Highway 49 Gold Rush Trail, which is dotted with many charming historic towns and mining-related activities; the American River and Folsom Lake; a wide variety of vineyards and orchards; plus a range of excellent restaurants, shopping venues and family attractions (miniature golf, go-karts, ice- and roller-skating, climbing walls, hiking and river rafting).

Festival housing includes multiple reasonably priced suite hotels, most featuring kitchens and including hot breakfasts.

Services will be held at the Rocklin Event Center, which is located in a quiet residential setting and offers us a large auditorium capable of seating over 400 people.

FLORIDA / For the third year the Feast will be held at the world-famous Renaissance World Golf Village, located in historic St. Augustine, Florida. This site is rich with history, as it was founded before the English colony at Jamestown, Virginia, and a half a century before the Pilgrims landed in Massachusetts.

The World Golf Village offers a superb venue for our Festival services. You will have a choice of staying at condos, motels and beach houses—or staying right at the Renaissance Resort, which offers an excellent discount to our members. You can just walk from the hotel to the auditorium. Parking is free. I invite you to come to Florida to keep the Feast and focus on the vision of the Kingdom of God that will soon return to earth.

Hapuna Beach

HAWAII / The Big Island of Hawaii is the location for our specialty Feast site this year. Situated on the sunny Kohala Coast, Hapuna Beach Prince Hotel will host our daily services and activities. Perfectly nestled into the bluffs above the world’s No. 1-rated Hapuna Beach, the resort presents a flowing, contemporary Hawaiian style where Feastgoers may experience the true essence of the Islands.

Activities at or near the resort include beach and ocean sports, golfing (two championship courses on property), spa, tennis, kid’s programs and hiking in nearby Hapuna Beach State Park. Several other group activities are planned for our attendees, including a family beach party, a family luau, a golf tournament, teen and young adult activities, and more. Average temperatures range between 72 and 83 degrees during September.

The resort has offered us an excellent nightly group rate of $149 for ocean-view rooms (additional larger room accommodations will be offered at higher prices). Since the meeting location and most activities are at the resort, this is ideal for those choosing to stay at the resort.

Staying at the Hapuna Beach Prince Resort helps the Church receive complimentary meeting space and resort discounts. Thank you for helping us out by reserving rooms and suites at the hotel!

Additional housing, including condominiums and homes, may be available in the area. However, these are all privately owned, and we are unable to negotiate reduced group rates. If you would like additional information on housing options, you may contact the Festival coordinator, David Register, at david.register@cogwa.org.

We invite you to join us for a spiritually inspiring and uplifting Feast in the natural setting of Hawaii’s Big Island this year!

This year’s Feast will be held at the Sunset Jamaica Grande Resort and Spa in Ocho Rios.

With a fabulous climate and postcard scenery, the island is also home to exotic gardens and waterfalls, great golf, amazing outdoor adventure and vibrant music and cuisine. Jamaica has something for everyone, and the Sunset Jamaica Grande Resort and Spa places you front and center to go out and enjoy the spectacular surroundings. Ocho Rios is famed for its dazzling shoreline. The resort is all-inclusive and is situated on the longest of its white sand beaches. The sensational lighthouse waterslides await to cool you off—along with five swimming pools, complete with plunge pools, waterfalls and a meandering river. Sunset Jamaica Grande Resort and Spa has four restaurants, two beach grills and eight bars to choose from.

The genuine warmth and friendliness of its people, coupled with professional service, will make your Feast experience one that will be long remembered! The resort is about 90 minutes from Sangster International Airport, Montego Bay. Round-trip transfers can be arranged through Jamaica Tours. Their rates are to be determined.

To take advantage of these rates, brethren are required to make reservations by July 18, 2013. A four-night deposit is required at the time of booking on all reservations.

pigeon forge

TENNESSEE / Nestled in the foothills of the Smoky Mountains, Pigeon Forge, Tennessee, is known as one of the top family vacation destinations in the country. If you enjoy the outdoors, there is much for you. The Feast of Tabernacles takes place when you can enjoy the fall colors, so its natural beauty brings out the outdoorsman in everyone. If you enjoy quality family time, good family entertainment, a wide selection of restaurants and plenty of shopping, you will love Pigeon Forge.

Housing consists of a variety of motel rooms with many offering a full breakfast in the rate. And, of course, there are also beautiful one- to four-bedroom condos. Or, for those with extended families wanting to share, there are large chalets and cabins that sleep up to 30. Housing prices begin at $52.75 per night and go up from there. This is also an area with several campgrounds for those who might enjoy camping during the Feast.

The seven Smoky Mountain Resort properties (All Season Suites, Country Cascades, Creekstone Inn, Governor’s Inn, Ramada Inn, Rodeway Inn and Resort at Governor’s Crossing) are tied in with the convention center where we will be holding services. Each room we book with one of these properties lowers the cost of the hall rental for the Pigeon Forge Feast site.

We want you to select the housing that best suits your family, whether it is a part of this group or not; however, we did want you to know how these particular properties are tied together and how booking your accommodations with them can benefit the Church. If you can’t find what you need from our list, you can find additional condo housing by doing your own online search.

park city
UTAH / The site of the annual Sundance Film Festival and many of the events of the 2002 Salt Lake City Winter Olympics, Park City is amazingly close to Salt Lake City—just 35 mostly freeway miles from the international airport. The elevation of 6,900 feet is lower than many Rocky Mountain ski resorts, but the area boasts “the greatest snow on earth.”

There are over 130 restaurants in Park City, with purportedly more chefs per capita than in Paris! Numerous tourist shops are clustered along Main Street, interspersed with many of the restaurants. Other types of shopping are scattered around the area, including full-service supermarkets and a Walmart.

We are changing venues this year and will be at the Prospector Hotel, which is less than a mile from last year’s facility, the Yarrow. The Prospector has a few large condominiums but mostly small to medium condominium-style units with full kitchens. These are located in several buildings within easy walking distance of the meeting facility.
