Curious George's All-You-Can-Eat Meatball Day: At 3 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 12, 2014, join the inquisitive, lovable little monkey Curious George—star of books, movies and the award-winning PBS television show—in this delightful new musical produced by the award-winning Theatreworks, USA and performed at the beautiful Stephanie H. Weill Center for the Performing Arts in Sheboygan, just one mile from Blue Harbor.

All-You-Can-Eat Meatball Day came just once a year. George had been waiting all month for that day. On Meatball Day, George helped his friend Chef Pisghetti cook some delicious meatballs, and serve them to the hungry crowd. But this year, the crowd had vanished!

Something was keeping people away. Something pretty big. And that “something” was Phinneas T. Lightspeed and his speedy Meatballs O’Matic machine. In despair, Chef Pisghetti vows to cook no more. Determined to help his friend, George goes on a mission to enter the chef’s meatballs in the world-famous Golden Meatball Contest ... in Rome. With every swing and flip, George takes the audience through a fun-filled adventure in which he learns more about Rome ... and meatballs ... and the “secret ingredient” to cooking! (Approximately 50 minutes in length, recommended for children pre-K to third grade.)

Kohler-Andrae State Park: Plan to visit beautiful Kohler-Andrae State Park, located just six miles south of Blue Harbor on Highway V. Kohler-Andrae State Park is the home of majestic sand dunes, miles of golden beach, whispering pines, an abundance of wildlife and a variety of nature trails. The two-mile Dunes Cordwalk runs parallel to the Lake Michigan shoreline, and hikers will see active and stabilized sand dunes, interdunal wetlands and a dry-mesic white pine forest in the Kohler Park Dunes State Natural Area. A Wisconsin State Park sticker is required on all motor vehicles within the park and can be purchased at the park entrance. Price is $7 for a daily sticker, Wisconsin resident (license plate); $3 for a Wisconsin resident aged 65 and older; $10 for a nonresident (out-of-state license plate).
